(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WARRENTON, VA., August 21.—The fourth annual show of the Warrenton Horse Show Association will be held at Warrenton on Wednesday and Thursday, August 27th and 28th. Probably no other horse show in the country, certainly not in this State, has grown into popular favor to any greater extent or met with more financial success than this yearly exhibit. This has been due in no small measure to the efforts of its manager, Mr. C. W. Smith, one of most popular gentlemen horsemen in the South, and its secretary, Mr. E. R. W. Barker. Through the enterprise and business ability of these gentlemen this show has been raised from a mere local affair to a metropolitan exhibition of high order. Mr. Smith's success in this field has led to his being made man-ager of the Richmond and Lynchburg Associations, which were organized last torney for the defense made a motion for a new trial on the ground that the jury was not legally constituted because of its non-resident member. When the same point was broached in a succeeding trial of another man Judge Hanckel dis-missed the jury in which Nash sat and summoned a new jury. It is anticipated, therefore, by the defense that Lewis will obtain a new trial on the abduction charge. He has still to be tried on the charge of seduction of the sixteen-yearold girl whom he took to Washington. thence to Phandelphia as hi wife.

PHENOMENAL CASE OF CRIMINALITY

William Tredwell Examined for Lunacy, but Found to Be of Sound Mind.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NORFOLK, VA., August 21.—William Tredwell, in jail in Portsmouth under sentence of death, and who refused a new trial, is still anxious to die. He has attended a michael to the control of the control o fempted suicide twice-once immediately after he had killed his wife and again after he was sentenced to hang for it.

To-day a commission of lunacy appointed by Judge W. N. Portlock reported that fredwell is not insane. During the exam-

Tredwell is not insane. During the examination he was sullen and refused to speak louder than a whisper, and then only in monosyllables. He said in answer to many questions that he had fever eleven years ago and was in bed for one year. He regretted failure of his two attempts at suicide, and admitted that he had run away from Bertle county. N. C., and from Sparrow's Point, Md., for cutting a man to see hades.
